

Wiki page for Lab Asmt 10

1. Create REST services for CRUD operation in MongoDB
2. Use this REST services and create Web Application which should have following features:
 - User can sign up or login
 - After signup/login, in next page display all the users and details of user
 - Provide options for update or delete user data
3. Deploy your application on to Amazon instance and share the URL.

Please find the screenshots below: